New York: HomeBase is an electric, eclectic group show featuring artists based in Harlem. The exhibition will run from September 26 through November 11, 2007 in the Canvas Paper and Stone Gallery in The Bradhurst at Strivers Row located at 2611 Frederick Douglass Blvd, Suite 2N in Harlem, New York City. Gallery hours are open to the public, Wednesday through Saturday, Noon to 6:00, by appointment. The opening reception will be held on Friday, September 28th from 6:00 until 9:00PM. Canvas Paper and Stone Gallery is a proud sponsor of the Third Annual Harlem Open Artist Studio Tours (HOAST) on October 6 and 7 2007.

One major objective of our Gallery is to educate our audience in the contemporary art genre. Part of that goal is met through Artist Talks and Tours. During HOAST we are pleased to announce conversations with four of the featured artists:

Ray Llanos: Photo Griot, finding and telling stories through the lens of his camera will be featured on Saturday, October 6 at 3:00PM.

Helina Metaferia: "Finding Womban," a series portraying women who seek soul liberation through womb healing paintings will be featured on Saturday, October 6 at 4:00PM.

Hope Maddox: "I find inspiration in everyday life. My art reflects how I feel at that moment in time." A talk on her hand painted furniture will be featured on Sunday, October 7 at 3:00PM.

Vivian Morris: Capturing the humanity in intimate portraits with passion and grace will be featured on Sunday, October 7 at 4:00PM.

Canvas Paper and Stone is the successor to American Vision 145, a gallery originally established in April 1999. It continues to lead the way in a Harlem cultural renaissance by producing world-class art exhibitions. Averlyn Archer, CEO and Curator, is an avid art collector and attorney. She has created a new online locale for art enthusiasts – CanvasPaperandStone.com. Viewers are welcome to access additional information and a copy of this press release on canvaspaperandstone.com.
